

Loxahatchee River Watershed Status Algae Blooms in Martin and St. Lucie Counties

Over the past several weeks there has been a massive algae bloom the St. Lucie River and Indian River Lagoon in Martin and St. Lucie Counties. This event triggered a State of Emergency declaration by Gov. Scott, no swimming advisories, protests, and extensive news coverage.

At our meeting we will provide an update on the algae emergency and discuss realistic options to improve water quality.

